HOMECOMING

“Hitherto hath the LORD helped us.” — 1 Samuel 7:12 (KJV)

Homecoming is more than a special service, a gathering of familiar faces, or a meal shared around the table. It is a sacred opportunity to pause and reflect on the goodness and faithfulness of God throughout the years. As we gather for Homecoming, we remember those who came before us—faithful pastors, dedicated members, praying mothers and fathers, and countless individuals who sacrificed their time, talents, and resources to build a foundation of faith. Some are still with us, while others have gone on to their heavenly reward. Yet their legacy continues to live through the ministry of the church. Homecoming is also a celebration of the present. While we thank God for yesterday, we must never forget that the same God who was faithful then is still faithful today. The church is not merely a monument to what God has done; it is a living testimony of what He is continuing to do. There are still souls to be saved, lives to be changed, families to be strengthened, and generations to be reached with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Finally, Homecoming reminds us of an even greater reunion that awaits every believer. One glorious day, the redeemed of the Lord will gather around the throne of God, where there will be no more sorrow, separation, or goodbyes. What a Homecoming that will be! As we celebrate the 68th Homecoming of the Seneca Church of God of Prophecy, may our hearts be filled with gratitude for the past, renewed commitment for the present, and unwavering hope for the future. Our history is a testimony of God's faithfulness, our present is an opportunity for His purpose, and our future rests securely in His promises. To God be the glory for the great things He has done—and for the greater things yet to come!
