Many times, in life we have unexpected events to occur. We never really can prepare for the unexpected. A sickness, financial distress, relationship issue, house repair, death, car repairs, or even a baby can all seem very unexpected. Even though we prep and hope for the best in life, things happen. Stuff happens!

With that said, we all know how these unexpected moments in life take us. We either deal with them in a healthy way or we allow the situation to dictate how we feel. Naturally, fear tries to be our task master and overwhelm and dictate how we respond. But truthfully, fear is a liar. Fear of the unknown will paralyze us and cause us to react in unreasonable and irrational ways. In moments like this, we need God to show up. Trust me – Jesus knows how to show up unexpectedly. After His resurrection, two men was on the road to Emmaus. Neither of them expected Christ to be alive, neither of them expected the supernatural to show up. Yet, a man joined them on their journey and explained the law and prophets to them. He revealed who the Messiah would be. This suffering servant as Isaiah would show. As soon as the revelation was made, Jesus left these men. They marveled at what had just happened. In their grief and misunderstanding, Jesus showed up unexpectedly. Many of us need Jesus to show up unexpectedly and do the miraculous. He still does and He can! As you seek the Lord this week, ask Jesus to show up in unexpected ways. He has a knack for doing just that.
