PALM SUNDAY
LIFEWAY

Jesus’s time and life on Earth had all been leading up to the cross, and His entrance into the city on Palm Sunday began the final steps in the plan for salvation that God decreed before the ages and promised to Adam and Eve in the garden (Genesis 3:15). Jesus came to die for the crowd of sinners that followed Him as well as the crowd of sinners that would shout “Crucify Him.” Both crowds regardless of their actions were in need of salvation, like us, and both crowds were given an incredible gift of grace that we too partake in (Romans 6:23). This week going forward we challenge you to think about who they see Jesus as? Is He merely a problem solver in hard times? A moral teacher with good advice? Or do you see Him as Lord of their life and rescuer from sin? Then who do you see yourself as in light of Him? Do you see a good person who follows the rules, a person seemingly too far gone to be redeemed? Or a person humbly broken in sin, but looking to Jesus as Savior?

As we remember the significance of Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday, let us not forget that we are nothing more than redeemed sinners ourselves and let us proclaim the truths we discover through Scripture with the good news of the gospel as we teach those around us.
