PURPOSE
CS LEWIS INSTITUTE

One of the biggest questions is not, What is my purpose for my life? but, What is God's purpose for my life. Are you confident that you know and are fulfilling God's purpose for your life? I trust you are, but not everyone is. In our chaotic and unsettling world, it is sometimes hard to understand how God's purposes are being worked out in our lives. Whatever your case, in the midst of the confusion, fears, anxieties, and distractions of this present world, all of us can benefit from a firmer confidence that God is indeed working out His plans in our lives. How can we gain this confidence? To be sure, we can't work it up on our own through human optimism and positive thinking. Rather, it is produced by the Holy Spirit, who works primarily (though not exclusively) through Holy Scripture, which He uses to enlighten our minds and kindle faith in our hearts (Rom. 10:17). God's purpose for our life has two major aspects: (1) His purpose in the world to come and (2) His purpose in the present world. These are intricately intertwined, and it is important to approach our need for guidance in the present world, which seem so urgent, in the context of God's larger purposes. Once we situate ourselves in this framework, we can more readily discern and embrace God's purposes in the unique circumstances of our lives.
