SPEAK FAITH

Sometimes life will give you several issues. Issues that you never saw coming. Issues that you never imagined that you would have to deal with. Yet, we have a choice in life. We either remain as we are, or we speak life in the midst of death and decay. We can lay down in our "mess" or we can rise with confidence that God is still on the throne. Everything comes down to perspective. If everything that happens to us is viewed as being bad or against us, then we will find ourselves in depression and full of anxiety. For an example, take the plagues in Exodus. To the Egyptians, the plagues were life altering. To the Hebrews, the plagues were life altering, also. However, for the Egyptians, their lives changed for the bad and life changed for the better for the Hebrews. Same plague, same area, but the difference was the viewpoint. We either chose to see our situations from a place of faith or a place of fear. From the viewpoint of fear, these life changing situations is meant to harm you. Yet, from the viewpoint of faith, these life changing situations is there to help you grow and preserve you, not destroy you. Speaking faith in the midst of your struggle shows you character. It may not seem logical or it may not make sense, but your character will shine in the midst of adversity. You will either take the high ground or the low ground. I challenge you today, to take the high ground of faith. Speak faith to every situation in your life. Allow your faith to be greater than fear. Church – Speak FAITH!
