“HOMECOMING”

PASTOR ANDY KINDER

What can be said of Homecoming?

This is the day that the local church gathers together and remembers the past. It is the time that we gather to enjoy a unique service and to enjoy food and fellowship following the service. However, Homecoming is much more than just a time to eat and fellowship. It is also a time where guests will come to enjoy and celebrate the founding of the church.

For the Seneca COGOP, the founding of this church was in 1958. This year, we celebrate 65 years of ministry in the city of Seneca and in the community of Utica. From its humble beginnings in the center of the mill hill to its location today on Overbrook Drive, the Seneca COGOP has been a guiding light to so many hurting souls. Over the past 65 years, the church has seen many highs and lows. It has seen salvations, sanctifications, and baptisms of the Holy Ghost. However, while Homecoming is a time to reflect on our past, it is also a time to look forward.

What does the Lord intend for the Seneca COGOP in the future? What will future generations say about this generation. I pray they will look back and see faithfulness to the Gospel. I also pray they see the exploits that this generation has accomplished for Christ. I look forward to what God is going to do today and in the future with the Seneca COGOP. To God be the Glory!
