SHOW UP TO WORK FOR GOD

There is a difference between simply showing up for church and showing up ready to serve God. Too often, we become comfortable with attending services, sitting in our favorite seats, singing a few songs, listening to a sermon, and then going home. But God has called us to something greater than attendance—He has called us to action! James 1:22 reminds us, "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves." Our faith was never intended to be passive. It should move us to serve, love, give, encourage, and reach others with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The church is not simply a place where we gather to be spiritually fed; it is a place where we are equipped to go out and make a difference. There are souls to reach, hurting people to encourage, children to teach, ministries to support, and communities that desperately need the love of Jesus. Every believer has gifts, abilities, and opportunities to contribute to the Kingdom of God. You may not preach from a pulpit or lead a worship team, but you can pray, invite someone to church, volunteer, encourage a struggling believer, or share the hope of Christ with someone who needs it. Jesus said in John 9:4, "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." Our time to serve is now! We cannot afford to become so comfortable in our Christianity that we forget the urgency of our calling. The Kingdom of God needs willing hearts and working hands.
