DESPERATE FOR GOD

PASTOR ANDY KINDER

We live in a world that lacks desperation for God. We are full of ourselves. We try to live by our own means and ways. We do not rely on God as we should and only call on Him when something is completely outside of our control. How horrible it is to only call on God when we are unable to handle the situation. In reality, we should live with the knowledge of desperation. We should recognize that God is essential to everything we are and do. Without God we are worthless. Without God we are helpless. I pray that we would slow down and recognize that in order to live for God as we should, we must hunger and thirst for God and His righteousness. Our society and culture don't care about God or His ways. In 1 and 2 Kings we see leader after leader allowing the people to go into sin. We see the kings ignoring the God of Heaven. We see the kings building altars and high places to the false gods of the region. This idolatry and sin led to the exile of Israel and Judah. Truthfully, there are many Christians and churches that are following suit. They are doing the exact same thing. They would rather cater to this world and hope to not offend anyone. Yet, today, in order to understand and exercise Christian Discipline – you must first be desperate for God. You must know your greatest need in life is – JESUS!
