LOVING EVERYONE

Life has a way of changing without warning. One phone call, one diagnosis, one loss, one disappointment, or one unexpected circumstance can suddenly turn an ordinary day into something we never saw coming. The truth is, we cannot always prepare for what will happen, but we can prepare our hearts for when it happens. Proverbs 3:5–6 reminds us, “Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.” When the unexpected happens, our first question is often, “Why, Lord?” We want an explanation. We want to understand how this fits into God's plan. But there will be moments when God does not immediately give us an explanation—He simply asks us to trust Him. Think about the disciples when a storm suddenly arose while they were crossing the Sea of Galilee. They hadn't planned for a storm. They weren't expecting to fear for their lives. Yet while the storm surprised them, it did not surprise Jesus. He was still in the boat. That's an important truth for us to remember: Whatever happens unexpectedly in our lives has never been unexpected to God. We may not know what tomorrow holds, but we know who holds tomorrow. When plans change, God remains faithful. When circumstances shake us, God remains our foundation. When we don't know what to do next, we can still take the next step with Him. So, when the unexpected happens, pray before you panic. Trust when you cannot understand. Hold tightly to God's promises. And remember that the same God who was faithful yesterday will still be faithful tomorrow. The unexpected may change our plans, but it never changes our God.
